

DON'T FORGET TO PRAY

When sunlight fades and day is done
and night is drawing nigh,
Don't forget to kneel and pray
and thank the Lord on high.

For all the many blessings
that come from heaven above,
For all your friends and family
and for everyone you love.

For all your happy memories,
that make you laugh and smile,
Even for the growth you've made,
while passing through each trial.

Then ask Him for the help you need to make it through your week,
Ask Him to comfort and strengthen you when things are looking bleak.

Ask Him for His guidance to help you choose what's right;
Ask Him to watch over you and keep you through the night.

And because He loves you,
He'll listen to what you say.
So, every night, before you climb in bed,
don't forget to pray!

❖ About the Artist ❖

Greg Olsen

Greg was born in Idaho Falls, Idaho and grew up in the nearby farming community of Iona. He is the oldest of five children. Greg was blessed with very supportive parents who always encouraged him and provided opportunities for him to pursue his passion of art. Greg remembers a time as a teenager when he had been hired to paint a large sign for a local grocery store. It was wintertime and too cold to paint in the garage so his parents let him set up a workshop in his bedroom. He promptly spilled two quarts of black and orange enamel paint all over his bedroom carpet. Amazingly, his parents still encouraged him in his artistic endeavors.

After high school Greg attended Utah State University where he studied art. While attending school he met his wife, Sydnie Cazier. They have six children and are enjoying their new role as grandparents. Greg likes being close to his family. He paints in his studio, 37 steps from the back door of their home. Greg says, "From an early age I have always been fascinated by paintings that create mood, emotion and atmosphere; especially those paintings that lift me and transport me to some far off place. These are the elements I strive to create in my paintings. My paintings in many ways record what is most important to me: my feelings and experiences with family and friends along with the spiritual aspects of my life. My hope is that in these images you will find something familiar, something which will resonate and remind you of what is important in your own life."
